Seven Minutes

by VickyDoll

Summary

Adora gets paired up with her childhood best friend in a game of seven minutes in heaven.

The problem?

She’s been madly in love with her for years.

Notes

See the end of the work for notes

Adora reached to the bottle, the glass cool against her hand. She said a silent prayer to herself as she twisted her wrist. She flicked her hand and the bottle began to spin in rapid circles, turning and turning, taking turns pointing at each person in the circle. Gradually, it slowed, eventually stopping. Adora dared to look up at who it had landed on.

Catra.

Adora's face flushed. This was exactly what she wanted, but now that it was happening, she suddenly wanted to run away.

Something flickered across Catra's face, but she quickly stood up and held a hand out to Adora, smirking.

"Come on, dummy."

Adora slipped her hand into her friend's, letting herself be pulled up and dragged to the coat closet. There was enough room in there for them both to fit comfortably, even if the carpet looked old and scratchy.

A chorus of 'oooh's had started from the rest of their friends, making Adora's blush deepen. She stepped into the cupboard with Catra, still holding her hand, and Glimmer shut the door behind them.

The girls stood face to face, searching the other's eyes for any sign of discomfort.

"THREE." Glimmer called from the other side of the door. Adora took a deep breath.
"TWO."
She leaned closer, feeling Catra's breath on her lips.
"ONE."
Catra flew forwards, her lips crashing against Adora's, taking the blonde by surprise.

She leaned into it, pushing against Catra's soft lips, trying not to come off as desperate. Catra's hands slid up Adora's sides, making her shudder, and came up to tangle in her hair, titling her head back slightly. Adora involuntarily let out a whine, immediately flushing with embarrassment, however it only seemed to encourage Catra, who took this as a sign to slide her tongue against the seam of Adora's lips, the blonde immediately parting them to allow her entry.

Adora's hands moved up from Catra's waist to wrap tightly around her back, pulling her closer. Catra let out a soft noise into her mouth, her fingers tightening in her hair.

"Catra," Adora sighed against her lips, pressing herself as close as she could to the other girl. Catra shuddered and moved her lips down to the blonde's neck.

Adora felt the name of this game was very fitting, because she certainly felt like she was in heaven right now. Catra kissed and sucked gently down her neck, paying extra attention to her pulse point, which drove her mad. She couldn't quite process that she was kissing CATRA. Her childhood best friend she's been in love with since forever. And the fact that Catra seemed to be just as eager as she was.

The brunette's hands moved down to rest on the small of Adora's back, teasingly close to her ass, and she shivered, moving her own hands down to mirror her position. Slowly, cautiously, Catra's hands slid lower, inching subtly down to where Adora wanted them. Adora whined in encouragement, too dazed to care about whether she was embarrassing herself.

Finally, Catra's hands were resting lightly on Adora's ass, making the blonde shiver again. Gently, Catra pushed her back against the neared wall, and Adora revelled in the feeling of being pinned against it. She slipped her own hands up slightly, allowing them to trail just barely under Catra's shirt. The feeling of the warm, soft skin of Catra's bare waist under her hands made Adora sigh softly into the charged air around them.

“Adora,” Catra mumbled desperately against her collarbone, her hands finding a firmer hold on the other girl’s ass. Adora took this as a sign to slide her hands up further, settling on the bottom of Catra’s ribs, just underneath her chest. The brunette breathed heavily against her neck, dragging her hands upwards only to slowly slide them down again, this time under the other girl’s jeans.

Adora could feel Catra’s hands on her ass much more clearly with only her underwear between them, and she let out a needy sigh as her friend continued to mouth at her neck.

KNOCK KNOCK KNOCK.

“TIME’S UP!”

Adora had to hold herself back from yelling “No!” like a grumpy toddler, instead reluctantly sliding her hands out of Catra’s shirt, savouring the last drag of them against the other girl’s skin. Catra placed one last kiss to Adora’s pulse point before drawing her hands out of her jeans and planting a final, chaste kiss on the blonde’s lips. Then she grabbed her hand and gave her an unsure smile.

“You ready?”

Adora stared at her, dumbfounded. Her hands had been down her pants moments ago and she was seemingly unaffected, ready to go? Eventually, she nodded, allowing Catra to drag her back through the door.

Dazed, she followed Catra back to their circle of friends, sitting back down and taking a big gulp of her drink. She noticed Catra leaving the room, so made an excuse to leave and follow her. She found the bathroom door cracked open and gently nudged it to see if Catra was inside.

There she was, leaning over the sink, head in her hands…crying?

“Catra?”

Catra jerked back, panic flooding her face as she tried to compose herself. Adora stepped closer to her.

"Are you okay?"
"Yeah, I'm fine, whatever. Just go."
Adora's own eyes watered. She didn't like seeing Catra upset and wasn't about to let her push her away when she needed help.
"Come on, Catra." She moved to shut and lock the door for privacy, assuring Catra that whatever she said would just be between the two of them. She pulled Catra into her arms and let the girl's head rest on her shoulder.

Catra was tensed up, but with the familiar kindness of Adora's touch she soon let herself relax.
"It's nothing."
Adora gave a disapproving hum.
"Okay, fine! I just…" She sighed frustratedly.
"Did I make you uncomfortable?"
"What?"
"Was I going too far? I'm sorry, I didn't mean to upset you-"
"Adora, stop. You didn't make me uncomfortable. It's me. I always mess things up."
Adora tilted her head closer to Catra's, confused.
"What did you mess up?"

Catra paused.

"Us. I just…I don't want to ruin our friendship because of my stupid feelings and I feel like I crossed a line and-"
"What feelings?" Adora pulled back, searching Catra's eyes, which was difficult when the other girl was avoiding her eyes.
"I love you, Adora." She whispered like a shameful secret. Adora's chest tightened.
"You love me?"
Catra nodded at the ground.
"I love you too."
Catra's head shot up, her eyes locking onto Adora's. Their lips collided for the second time that night, fuelled by the unreserved passion of two very repressed people finally getting together.

Catra lifted Adora up onto the counter, moving to stand between her legs, their hand wandering far more boldly than before.

Who said they had to settle for seven minutes?
